

Leadership “Rules of Engagement”

The responsibilities of volunteer leaders are generally stated in the governing documents: bylaws, articles of incorporation and policies. The rules of engagement have been developed to communicate cultural expectations and preferred behavior for governance. (Every organization has its own leadership expectations developed over time; this is a sample.)

Timeliness and Courtesies

- Meetings start and end on time; arriving on time and staying until business is completed.
- Cell phones and digital distractions are off or on silent during meetings.
- Communications are acknowledged within 48 hrs of receipt; if a reply is pending, do so within 3 days and more immediately for urgent issues.
- Written reports and requested documents must be submitted in a timely manner.

Knowledge and Information

- Conduct business and make decision based upon knowledge --- not assumptions.
- Information, reports and financials will be read for understanding. If information is lacking, ask critical questions in advance of meetings so everyone is fully prepared.
- Agree that a lack of knowledge is not an excuse for not taking action or attendance.

Decorum and Protocol

- The organization operates in an environment of transparency.
- Conduct board business in front of all board members and speak up at meetings.
- Meeting decorum is respectful and no member will reproach another for speaking honestly.
- Factual information will not be withheld from the board by any director or staff member.
- Respect and give fair consideration to diverse and opposing viewpoints; realizing the impact of image and words when discussing and representing the Chamber.
- Accountability to any and all commitments by volunteers and staff is crucial.
